Community Waterfront Heritage Centre (CWHC): Coach 4884 Usage Guidelines

Booking Policy:

- The Coach may be used by Community Users from mid-May to Thanksgiving weekend who agree to follow the policies and procedures outlined in the Usage Guidelines.
- Bookings are accepted on a first-come, first served basis.
- The reservation is binding with a completed and signed contract with the payment and security/cleaning deposit for each request.
- Full payment must be paid at least one month prior to the event. While payment may be made with credit cards or cash, payment by cheque is preferred.
- For bookings made less than one month before the event, only credit card or cash payment will be accepted.
- The security/cleaning deposit will be a separate payment that will be held but not deposited when received. If there are no damages and no clean-up work needs to be done, this deposit cheque will be returned.
- The usage fee is in blocks of four consecutive hours. This includes set-up and clean-up. For evening events, the coach must be vacated by 10 p.m.
- The fee includes the use of the coach and the use of the kitchen/servery: includes tea pot, tea kettle, microwave, fridge, and coffee maker. Garbage bags, cleaning supplies, tea towels, dish cloths, and dish detergent are supplied. Dishes are not provided.
- There are 10 rectangular tables (36" x 24") with 4 chairs at each.
- Coach maximum of 50 persons.
- The only AV provided is a pull-down screen.
- There are two small washrooms.
- The person signing the rental form must be present during all of the rental time or designate an alternate and provide this information.

Cancellation Policy

If the event is cancelled three weeks or less before the event, an administration fee of $25 for ½ day bookings and $50 for full day bookings will be retained. The cancellation must be done by mail or e-mail to have a paper record. If done by telephone, it must be followed up in writing (mail or e-mail.)

Use of Coach

Safety

- Alcohol use and smoking of any substance, or vaping is strictly prohibited.
- Use of lighted candles, open flames and catalytic burners is strictly prohibited.
- No confetti, rice, etc.
- All exit doors aisle and fire routes must be kept clear and accessible in case of emergencies. It is the responsibility of the user to ensure that the facility capacities are not exceeded at their event.
- If the event is for children or includes children (12 years and under), there will be one adult per every six children.
- Accessibility: There are railings on both sides of the steps to the Coach platform. From the decking, there is first a step, then four grated-steps to the Coach platform.

Set-up and Clean-up

- Nothing is to be posted on walls or windows.
- Set-up and clean-up is the responsibility of the person(s) or group(s) using the Coach.
- The contact person is responsible to ensure that all areas of the Coach are clean prior to departure. The Coach is to be left the same as was before usage. An hourly fee will be levied to cover all costs associated with the clean-up in the event the user fails to complete the work.
- Remove all materials used by your group.
- Recycling is encouraged and waste material and recycling must be taken with the users.
- Users will be responsible for all and any loss or breakage that occurs while using the facility.
- Please notify “the Coach Monitor” of any broken or malfunctioning features within the Coach.

Advertising by Users

- Any public advertising of your event must state: “This is not a Community Waterfront Heritage Centre event and does not necessarily reflect its mission.”
- Information to be included in any invitation or advertisement of a non-CWHC event: “Due to the historic nature of Coach 4884, it is not accessible.”
- Please do not give out CWHC’s phone number as a contact for your event
